

Family Hubs Implementation Toolkit in Practice

- Claudia Coussins, Anna Freud Centre
- Ben Lewing, Early Intervention Foundation
- Rebecca Sargent, Cornwall Council

The NCFH pilot toolkit

Purpose: to support a variety of stakeholders to implement Family Hubs in their local areas

Module breakdown

Family Hubs development process

Related policy modules

Implementation modules

Why Family Hubs?	Evaluation	Relational Practice	Integration	Coproduction
Commissioning & Funding	Inclusion and accessibility	SEND	Virtual/digital delivery	Workforce planning
Service design and transformation	Outreach and access	Family Hub Spaces (Co-location, estates)	Working with VCS	Transitions
Children's Social Care	Data sharing	Youth Proofing	?	?

Policy modules

Cross-government working to ensure all families have access to the same high quality services and supportive relationships within their local area.

DHSC
Best Start for Life

DLUHC (formerly MHCLG)
Supporting Families
Programme

DWP
Reducing Parental
Conflict

Implementation modules

Collaboration with everyone working with children and families in local authorities, health, education, and the voluntary and community sectors.

Post launch priorities

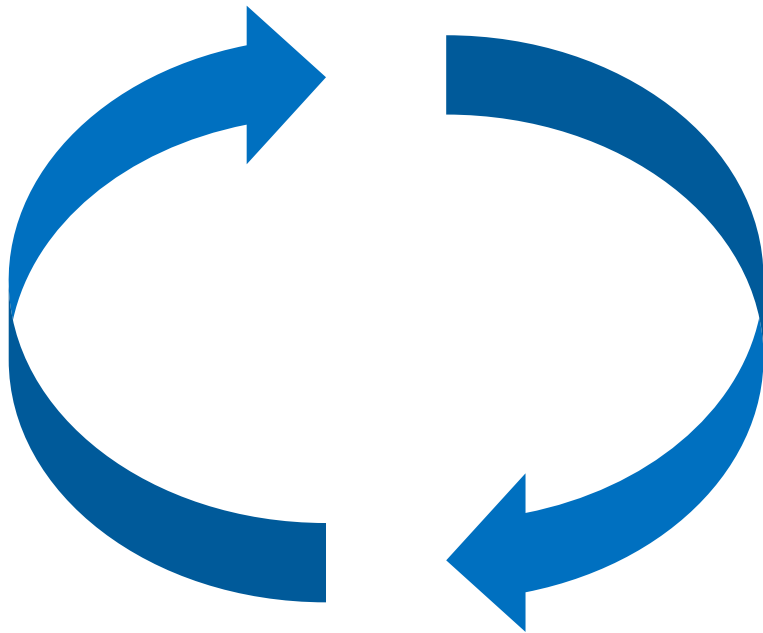

- Coproduction
- Integration
- Relational practice
- Commissioning and funding
- Youth Proofing
- Inclusion and accessibility
- Reducing Parental Conflict
- SEND

What next?

- Virtual and digital delivery
- Workforce planning
- Service design and transformation
- Outreach and access
- Children's Social Care
- Transition between service levels
- Data sharing
- Family Hub spaces
- Family Hubs and Schools
- Working with Voluntary and Community Sector

Coproduction

Everyone involved in Family Hubs, especially families, are recognised as stakeholders and are part of the decision-making process

Principles

- Recognising who isn't being met
- All levels of design and delivery
- Recognising power and privilege
- A commitment to lived experience

Process

- Iterative development
- Paid participation workers
- Coproduction workshops
- Regional structure